MIDDLE SCHOOL TO HIGH SCHOOL

“Being a teenager is such a compelling time period in your life--it gives you some of your worst scars and some of your most exhilarating moments...”

Today’s teens are facing many difficult challenges brought about by the present situations and dynamics of families. A rapidly growing number of them are beginning to lose hope; the numbers for teenage suicide and drug addiction have risen to new heights... and the importance of the school’s being a child’s second family now comes more into the fore...!

Join us as we tackle the issues and concerns of the teenager’s families and find out how effective mentoring and guidance of students and parents can result in a more sterling academic and campus life...
